

WHY UNIV 1824

PATHWAYS TO SUCCESS: EXPLORING YOUR FUTURE

FALL 2022
CRN #90265

FOR TRANSITIONAL & EXPLORING STUDENTS

SUPPORT & CONNECTIONS

The transitional section of UNIV 1824 is taught by a transitional academic advisor who can advise during your change of major process. Peer mentors are also embedded in the class to help support transition from a peer perspective.

MAJOR & CAREER EXPLORATION

Guest speakers highlight majors across campus while students complete activities and assignments integrating self-reflection and career research.

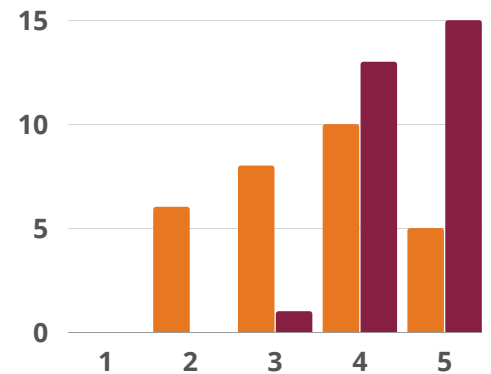

RESOURCE KNOWLEDGE

UNIV 1824 also serves as an FYE (First Year Experience) course, so you will gain skills, knowledge, and awareness of resources to aid in your continued success at VT.

PATHWAYS 3: SOCIAL SCIENCE

UNIV 1824 counts towards your Pathways for General Education by integrating learning of psychosocial and behavioral theories that impact how we navigate transition.

ON A SCALE OF 1 - 5:

HOW CONFIDENT DO YOU FEEL
IN CHOOSING A MAJOR THAT RELATES TO YOUR GOALS AND INTERESTS?

BEGINNING UNIV 1824

FINISHING UNIV 1824

*According to the Pre- and Post
2021-2022 Class Assessment

1 = Not confident at all
5 = Extremely confident

WANT TO ENROLL?

EMAIL US

universitystudies@vt.edu